This hunt is really something special!

The hunt for the beautiful white mountain goat is one of the toughest and most challenging ones.

The steep mountain sides at Williston Lake Outfitters are home for a good and strong population of that specie, and if that is on your list, we will be happy to make your dream come true.

The horses take us far up in the high country and we set up base camp just underneath the tree line. In the mornings we jump on the horses and they will take us as high up the magnificent mountain as possible, and from here the climb on foot begins. We will find a good spot and spend many hours behind binoculars spotting for the right Billy. We might decide to go spike camping for a few days, depending on where we spot the goat.

We recommend you to be in good physical condition as well as be prepared for a true wilderness adventure. Besides your professional guide, you will be accompanied by a wrangler, and the most spectacular nature sights and surroundings in the beautiful Rocky Mountains, so do not forget your camera!

You will not find it hard to leave your everyday life behind for a short while! You can combine your hunt for Mountain Goat with hunt for Elk and Moose.
